Itinerary

1 Hotel pickup (7:30 – 8:00 a.m.)

We pick you up at your hotel in Cusco between 7:30 and 8:00 a.m. Departure for the Sacred Valley is at 8:00 a.m.

2 Pisac: craft market and archaeological site

You walk through the town of Pisac and its craft market, with handmade textiles, ceramics and jewelry, and visit its Inca archaeological site, with terraces on the hillsides.

3 Buffet lunch in Urubamba (2:00 p.m., approx. 1 h)

We have lunch in Urubamba, in the heart of the Sacred Valley: a buffet with starters, main courses and desserts from the region, with vegetarian options.

4 Ollantaytambo

You visit the Ollantaytambo archaeological park, with its impressive Inca terraces. If you are continuing to Machu Picchu, this is where you take the train to Machu Picchu Pueblo; the rest of the group continues the tour.

5 Chinchero

Last stop: Chinchero, a town that keeps its weaving tradition alive. You visit its archaeological site and its colonial church, with an introduction to local culture and customs.

6 Return to Cusco (approx. 7:00 p.m.)

We return to Cusco around 7:00 p.m. The transport drops you off two or three blocks from the Plaza de Armas.

Included

- Pickup at your hotel. Hotel pickups start from 7:30 AM for group tours. For private tours to the Sacred Valley, the pickup time can be arranged.
- Bilingual professional guide (Spanish and English). In group tours, the tour is spoken in Spanish and English, one after the other. In private tours, you can choose to have the tour in Spanish, English, or Portuguese.
- Transportation. Includes tourist transportation to the attractions.
- Buffet lunch. We will enjoy a buffet meal in Urubamba. In the lunch, you can serve spaghetti, white meat (fried chicken, loin, stew of loin, fried trout), red meat (lamb stew, loin meat, pork crackling), quinoa fried rice, legumes, Andean potatoes, as well as white rice or garden rice (Peruvian dish with vegetables). For lunch, there are also 2 varieties of salads: cooked (carrots, broccoli), raw (lettuce, cucumber, tomato, excellent vegetarian options). If you want soup, you can serve yourself a quinoa soup. For dessert, you can try mazamorra morada or rice pudding (both are some of the most popular Peruvian desserts), jelly, or peach stew. Hot drinks are included: muña tea, coca tea, coffee.
- In private tours, breakfast and lunch are provided at higher-category restaurants that offer greater culinary variety.
